Also the little ones of Lihue will have their usual good time in the Fourth-of-July childrens' games which were inaugurated by some of our public spirited residents and have been carried out so successfully during recent years. These will begin at the usual hour in the forenoon and will continue for the greater part of the day, varied by a tempting lunch of ice-cream and cake which the youngsters will enjoy at noon. As they will be held within the circle of the quarter-mile track which will be laid off by County Engineer Moragne, they will not be interfered with by the field day events.

Some little misunderstanding as to the qualifications for entrance in the latter has arisen among the athletes in certain of the districts of the island, and we will reiterate the announcement of the Association directors which was made last week;—that, on account of the fact that this will be the first field meet ever held on this island, and the Association is desirous of encouraging the local talent as much as possible this time, none but bona fide residents of Kauai will be allowed to enter.

The test of whether a man is a bona fide resident or not will be—was he residing on this island for

Kid George Gets Decision In Fight

(Special to the Garden Island)

Honolulu, June 19.—Kid George was given a decision over Patsy McKenna, after a fifteen round go here Saturday night. The fight was a disappointment to the spectators.

The Christian Science Church in Honolulu has secured W. D. McCrackan A. M. a member of the Board of Lectureship of First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, to deliver a lecture in Honolulu on Sunday evening June 25 at the Hawaiian Opera House. Mr. McCrackan is said to be one of the best orators in the Board and the church in Honolulu has been fortunate in securing his services for this occasion. He will proceed to Australia from Honolulu.

at least two months before the Fourth? Those who may claim residence here but have not been living on Kauai since the 1st of May will find it difficult to prove their Kauai residence.

The field-day prizes are now on exhibition in Lihue Store, where they form an elegant display and are attracting much attention.
